Working Group

The screenshot shows a Microsoft Outlook calendar interface. On the left, a calendar view for February 12, 2015 (Thursday) is visible, with a meeting titled "Learning Support Network Meeting" at 133. The main window displays the appointment details for "Learning Support Network Meeting - Appointment".

Appointment Details:

- Subject: Learning Support Network Meeting
- Location: 133
- Start time: Thu 2/12/2015, 2:00 PM
- End time: Thu 2/12/2015, 3:00 PM
- All day event

Appointment Description:

Based on the doodle poll results, it looks like Thursday, Feb 12 at 2:00 PM is the group. Please mark your calendars. Beth Ten Have offered to host us in the Hage 033. Beth, can you confirm the room's availability? Again, if you have particular things to bring to the table, please let me know and I can draft an agenda. We can also do conversations about academic support programming, recruiting and training peer professional development opportunities.

Stay warm!

Mission

The Learning Alliance has come together organically as a response to the decentralized nature of academic support at DU. The purpose of the group is to share information, best practices, and build community amongst our centers. As a group, we populate the “learning landscape” of Drexel, and we are trying to be mindful of how to help students navigate that landscape. In light of recent transitions and the momentum we have from a strong start to the academic year, we are in a great place to start thinking collectively and strategically about how to raise our visibility and increase accessibility.
